King of the Universe/Christ the King: Nov. 26

On the last Sunday of the liturgical year, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. Instituted by Pope Pius X in 1925, this solemnity reminds us of the never-ending reign of Christ as king of the Church and entire universe. Just as Jesus is both fully God and fully man, this week's gospel presents Jesus as both a shepherd and a king, showing us his grace as a leader who rules while nurturing and protecting his flock at the same time. On this same note, men are separated like sheep and goats — those who follow Christ's example will inherit eternal life, while the goats that turn a blind eye to the suffering of others will face eternal punishment. With the upcoming holiday season, take this opportunity to commit yourself to serving others as Christ teaches.

The Diocese of Gaylord has recently launched a weekly e-newsletter that will help deepen your understanding and relationship with God. Subscribe now and receive a variety of faith-based content including Bishop Walsh's "Checking In" video via email every Wednesday afternoon. Sign up today: dioceseofgaylord.org/subscribe.

Christ the King A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Families feed the hungry, give drinks to thirsty toddlers and welcome strangers and even estranged relatives into our homes. We clothe children and visit family members who are sick and imprisoned. The routine actions of family life are religious and priestly for we make Christ present in what we do. Family life is Beatitude life.

Please pray for Kathy Peters, Richard Boyk & Eugene Srebnik that they will rest in peace and for their families that they will be consoled in this time of grief and loss by the power of the Holy Spirit and by the care and support of others.

Feast of St. Andrew the Apostle: Nov. 30

On Nov. 30, we celebrate the Feast of St. Andrew the Apostle.

The Gospels of Matthew and Mark present Jesus' first encounter with Andrew and his brother Peter along the shore of the Sea of Galilee. Upon receiving their call from Jesus, they abandoned their trade as fishermen to follow him as disciples.

During his lifetime, St. Andrew travelled through eastern Europe, spreading the word of Christ. At the time of his martyrdom, he requested to be crucified on a diagonal cross, as he deemed himself unworthy of dying on a cross like Jesus.

Like St. Andrew, we must also respond to him with our whole heart, ready to go where he leads.

Christ the King

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom.

Christ the King

The Church year ends today. We can proclaim Christ as King because we sense our vocation as being members of His Royal Family, called to serve God and one another.
